DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 5-8, 10-15, 28, 30-32, and 34-39 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. Since the new grounds of rejection were not necessitated by Applicant's amendment the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn and the instant Office action is non-final.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 5-8, 10-12, 14, 15, 28, 30-32, 34-36, 38, and 39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Pat. No. 1,604,958 (Bayles). Bayles discloses an apparatus for freeing a seized valve comprising an elongate stem (S), means for enabling the repeated application of an impact force in opposite directions (lines 49-67), gripping means (Z) including a plurality of jaws (seen in figure 1), means for enhancing the engagement or elongate teeth (teeth on jaw in figure 2), wherein the teeth (on jaw in figure 3) are substantially perpendicular (seen in figure 3), external impact producing device (B), and means to allow an impact force in a rotational direction (element H, the handle will allow a user to rotate the assembly), a base portion (V), a cam surface (angled interior surface of element V seen in figure 2), and wherein the base portion (V) urges (via element U) the gripping means (Z).

Art Unit: 3753

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 13 and 27 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
